

CCF's "Online Vine" March 29, 2020

Welcome! As the Lord's servants, His warriors, let's adopt the USMC's slogan: "Improvise, Adapt, and Overcome" (see Romans 8:28, 1 John 4:4). As you know, our God-given mission has not, cannot, and will not change:

CCF's ONGOING Mission is to:

Be and Make Disciples of Jesus

Who Love God and Others to HIS Glory

- Using our Spirit-given gifts and resources
- Relying on His strength
- Serving with His body, family
- Following Him through His Word

Join us online Sunday. We will be gathering on Facebook and Google Meets, from 9:50 to 11 a.m. Check your email for those details.

We will also be on Kerry's or the Church's Facebook page. Thanks for your patience as we figure out the best ways to serve.

This is Pastor Kerry's last Sunday. Pray for him and Robin as they adapt to their new role in such unusual times. From Kerry: "We thank you for the honor of serving with you these past eight years. We are thankful to be able to stay connected as I become District Superintendent. We love and thank God for you."

CCF's Elders are Matt Smith and Rick Meyer. Pray for and stand with them. Show them grace as they lead and serve in such an unusual time. If you have a need or want to help, let them know.

Giving during this time: We do have people gathering the mail at church. You can mail a check—not cash!—to CCF: 160 Singleton Road, Sarver, PA 16055. Some people have their bank automatically mail a recurring gift. If you have a need, let us know.

Let's say and live March's Verse: "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 5:16—ESV)

April's Verse will be emailed to you soon. You will be able to print and cut it out. Along with that, create your own handwritten copy, add an artsy flair, and post your work on the CCF Facebook page.

"Holy Week" is April 5 to 12. Rev. Dennis Smith will be our guest online speaker. Prepare your heart to make Holy week a meaningful time of prayer, meditation, and re-dedication to the Lord. Read, re-read Luke, or another Gospels' account of the last week of Jesus.

Praise and Prayer Matters:

- For God to not only protect us but to use us (Matthew 5:16)
- For students, parents, healthcare workers, those laid off, seniors . . .
- CCF and our Leaders in this time of transition

Do you want to host a CCF-related Zoom meeting? We have an account you can use! Teachers, Seamstresses, Leaders . . . get creative! Use all the means available to stay in touch, encourage, and spiritually nurture one another. Get in touch with Rick Meyer to reserve a day and time.
